

Bringing "Self" Under Control

A. W. Tozer: "We must confess, forsake, repudiate the self-life and then reckon it crucified."

Proverbs 25:28: Like a city whose walls are broken down is a man who lacks self-control.

Pray: Lord, show me where my walls are breaking down.

I lack self-control in these areas:

Scripture that applies:

Pray: Lord, by your grace, I will pray these scriptures into my life until I see these areas come under the control of the Holy Spirit, until my self is controlled.

Galatians 2:20: I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

I will make myself accountable to _____ as a way to help me bring my self under control.

I will humble myself by doing the following:

- ___ I will not talk about myself as much as I usually do.
- ___ I will make a conscious effort to listen to others and to care about their problems.
- ___ I will not talk about my successes or brag on myself to others.
- ___ I will accept criticism as gracefully as possible, even if it's not given in a constructive way.
- ___ I will be teachable and willing to learn from others, no matter who they are.
