Day 5 - Friday, June 22, 2018

Examine Yourself

Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us. (1 Peter 2:12)

If anyone wants to be first, he must be the very last, and the servant of all.” (Mark 9:35b)

You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. (2 Corinthians 3:3)

What is your attitude toward your job? (check all that apply)

- I have to work; I need an income. Therefore, I have a job.
- I want to advance my career and get the best job I can. I need to earn more money.
- I dread going to work most days because my workplace is so unpleasant.
- I can't wait to retire!
- I have big dreams of being successful in my career, so I'm always looking for ways to improve and advance myself.
- I believe I have been called by God to the job I have and I want to honor him as I work.
- I see my job as my "mission field"—a place to bring the light of Jesus into a dark place.
- I want to be good witness on my job—do my work well and show the love of Jesus to my co-workers.

You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. (2 Corinthians 3:3)

Pray that you will always be “a letter from Christ” to the people you work with and for, that they will “read” God’s truth through the life you live. You do this by:

- Doing your work with excellence
- Giving your employer a full day’s work; not lazy or slothful
- Working with a joyful attitude
- Refusing to be part of any gossip or slander
- Maintaining a positive outlook and attitude
- Always going the extra mile to help others
- Living a life of integrity, honesty and humility
- Putting others first
- Being a good listener
- Praying regularly for the people you work with and for
